Dear General

When I was last in Frankfort I had not determined weather I would, or could go on the present contemplated Campaign, neither could I say untill my return to this place, otherwise I would have mentioned the subject to you, but as I have concludedied again to shew myself again provided I can get an appointmant in the Staff Department, as it is to be presumed that all the other appointments are completed —

It is not necessary for me to procure any recommendation to you as you are personally acquainted with me & know what I am best qualified in an army — Any services you can rendere me will confer an obligation on Sir

Your Most Obedient
Humble Servt
