the Boddy of an individual By the name of . . . Mann, I will further observe that if Mr Martin had of Proven to the Jury his General Character &c. then verdict would have been different from what it was — without the interference of your Eulency the Officer will have to destroy the family in a few weeks as he is compelled to make his return at the Noor Court; the remition enclosed to me would be with pleasure handed to Mr Mann

Whereas Solomon McDaniel in the year 1834 Entered as Security in a recognizance for the appearance of his brother William McDaniel in the Daviess Circuit Court to answer the Commonwealth of Kentucky on an Indictment for Stealing Money and the said recognizance having been forfeited by the failure in said William McDaniel to appear in Court to answer said Charge the Commonwealths attorney instituted suit on said Recognizance and at this October term of the Daviess Circuit Court recovered judgment in favour of the Commonwealth against the said Solomon McDaniel for the sum of $100 Dolls & costs. Now we the undersigned petitioners do respectfully represent to the Honble John Breathitt Governor of Kentucky that the said McDaniel is quite a poor man with a large family of children and the collection of that sum money would leave the said McDaniels family destitute of the means of a livelihood by depriving them of their crop stock & other necessaries to life, and we therefore petition your excellency to release the said Solomon McDaniel from the payment of said

Judgment, believeing that the Citizens of the County generally would approbate the act and view it as dictated by humanity and benevolence

William P. Holloway states that he has been just called upon by the Sheriff to pay six dollars, for failing to muster in Capt C Hunts Company in May, June and October of 1830. Affiant prays to be relieved from said fines ~~because~~, altho he did not attend said musters in person, he was represented by a man who was received as a substitute for him by the Capt. he did not attend the Court for the assessment of fines not supposing that he had been marked as in default.

Nov. 22 1832 Wm P Holloway.

This day Wm P Holloway made oath before me, Mayor of the City of Lexington, that the facts, set forth in the above statement are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.
