Dear Sir

Having heard that Mr William Kelly of Hanodsburg is spoken of as one of the persons who will probably be nominated as a Circuit Judge and having conceived a very high opinion of him as a man of good judgment & integrity. I have taken the liberty of addressing you in his favour. My acquaintance with him commenced in Summer 1802 since which I have observed in him the most discreet and gentlemanly deportment. The circumstance of his being a foreigner with but little property & few connections in this Country may be an objection with some - but certainly his being a foreigner will be favourable to his possessing that kind of impartiality and disinterestedness which ought to characterize the Judge, and if I have rightly conceived of his principles he possesses that kind of independance without which the most respectable connections & ample fortune would afford but slight security

Should Mr Kelly meet with your approbation and receive the appointment of Judge I do most confidently rely that his conduct in discharge of that duty will be such as never to repent you of the confidence placed in him

With due respect I am

Frankfort 11. Dec. 1804 —

Dear Sir

We beg leave to recommend Mr. Francis Flournoy as a fit person to fill the Office of an Assistant Judge for the County of Pendleton. His long and general acquaintance with business, together with his having devoted considerable time to the study of law, render him in our opinion well worthy of that appointment, & we are led to believe this measure would meet with the approbation of a large portion of his countymen.

Please accept an assurance of our best respect & friendship
