To his Excellency Christopher Greenup Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky the Petition of the Subscribers inhabitants of Warren County Humbly Sheweth, that at the October Term 1805 in Warren County a Certain John Taylor a young man of honest Extraction, was Charged With and found Guilty by the Verdict of a Jury of Stealing a Small piece of Cloth to the Value of 2/ and Sentenced by said Jury to a Confinement in the Jail and Penitentiary house for the Term of 2 years, which Punishment will and must inevitably be Inflicted without your Gracious interposition, in order to move your Excellency to interpose and Extend the arm of Mercy, your Petitioners Beg leave to State the following facts, first, It is satisfactorily proven to us that on the Evening when the Shift was supposed to have been Committed, this Unfortunate young man was under the Influence of ardent Spirits, and that when he went into the Store there were Several persons of his acquaintance men of unsullied reputation, Cheapning goods or dealing, that this young man did in a Jesting manner take up a peace of Cloth and from the Counter and hand it to one of those Gentlemen, who thowed it back on the Counter

after repeating this several times he did in the sung and presence of one of those Gentlemen take one of those pieces and put it under his Coat and asked the witness if he would walk with him, but did not attempt to go himself he was then asked by the Store Keeper if he had not got something in his bosom, when he replied in a funny way he had and laid it on the Counter, making some wetty remarks, from all which it does most manifestly appear to your petitioners, that this unfortunate young man had no Evil or felonious intention, your Petitioners do therefore Humbly hope and trust that your excellency will take this Case into your most serious Consideration, and Extend to this unfortunate young man the arm of Mercy, and by pardoning and restoring him to his Honest and respectable, tho Destressed and desconsolate Friends and Conections do to this Unfortunate young man that act of Justice which you Alone, by the Laws of the Land Possess the power of Doing, and your Petitioners As in duty bound will ever pray &c letter to Gov. as a convict in Penitentiary

To his Excellency Christopher Greenup Governor of Kentucky

Sir

On taking into consideration my present situation, together with my past conduct; have no right to calculate on favours by which to obtain the least indulgence contrary to the verdict of my country except through your goodness and mercy. — And altho expectations have been raised in me of that favour which as matter of right I have no pretentions to; yet I feel no disposition to reflect on any one, should that expec-tation be entirely disappointed. My confidence in your wisdom ~~in your~~ goodness and patriotism forbids it, and by these your Excellen-cy will be assured, that if in your your Opinion my confinement for the whole time I stand committed will constitute a precedent of more worth to my country, than that by the case of Lawson and Sipple on which I have chiefly built my hopes, I will proceed to my daily labour on monday morning, & with all possible cheerfulness will Sacrifice my feelings at the Shrine of the Public good —

Though shut up ~~immured~~ within the walls of the Penitentiary, I pray your Excellency to accept the homage of my respectful consideration

John Williams

Can't be complied with at present

Christopher Greenup
Governor
State of Kentucky
