Fayette Cty Decr the 7th 1812

Dear Sir

As from the various accounts from our North Western Army there appears to be no probability of doing any thing decisive this winter; and expecting that a new detachment of the militia of this State, will be ordered out in the latter part of this winter or early in the Spring, on an expidition to Canada; I take the liberty of hinting to you, that I have a great anxiety to take an active part in the reduction of that country. Believing that I am among the oldest Brigade commanders on the North Side of the Kentucky river, and having been engaged in military duty from my fifteenth year, to the present period, also knowing you to have been acquainted with the character of my father and brother in the revolutionary war, and not unacquainted with myself; I hope, should there be an occasion for another campaign, that I shall receive an appo=intment, adequate to my rank and seniority in office.— With sentiments of the highest respect I remain your Obedt. Servt.
