March 1807.

21st The Governor commissioned Lewis Marchelor Sheriff of the County of Muhlenberg until the end of the next session of the General Assembly in the place of 24th The Governor commissioned William Johnson Surveyor of Scott County during good behaviour to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of John Payne; he having been recommended agreeably to the Constitution.

The Governor also commissioned Jezreel Ellis Sheriff of Pendleton County until the end of the next session of the General Assembly in consequence of the County Court having failed to recommend proper persons at the time required by the Constitution and the expiration of the term of the former Sheriff.

April 1807.

11th The Governor commissioned Felix Grundy Esq. Chief Justice of Kentucky until the end of the next session of the General Assembly in the place of Thomas Todd Esq. resigned

13th The Governor commissioned William Anderson and Samuel Sayers Justices of the Peace in the County of Campbell during good behaviour they having been recommended agreeably to the Constitution

April 1807

13th The Governor commissioned Robert Trimble second Judge of the Court of Appeals until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly in place of Felix Grundy resigned

15th The Governor commissioned Thomas Vanswearengen Assistant Judge of the Logan Circuit Court until the end of the next session of the General Assembly in place of William Reading Resigned

18th The Governor commissioned William M'Cluing, Alexander Keith Marshall, Thomas Keith, and Daniel Reese Justices of the peace in the County of Mason during good behaviour, and also Samuel Owen Coroner of Mason County during good behaviour —— Thomas Stark and Samuel Jones Dawson Justices of the peace in Bourbon County during good behaviour in place of William Mitchell commissioned Sheriff and Robert Scott resigned —— Dabeed Flournoy, George Berry, John Guill & Martin Hawkins Justices of the Peace in Scott County during good behaviour —— and Hugh S. Gaterwood and John A. Conover Justices of the peace in Gallatin County in place of William Ellis removed and David Owens commissioned Sheriff; during good behaviour they all having severally been recommended agreeably to the Constitution.

The Governor commissioned Augustine Jennings and Thomas Buford Justices of the peace in Garrard County

—during—

April 1807.

during good behaviour in the place of William Jennings

24th " Appointed Sheriff and Abner Baker resigned —

Also Andrew Bradley Surveyor of Clay County during good behaviour, they having severally been recommended agreably to the Constitution

The Governor commissioned John A Morton Sheriff of Fayette County until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly in the place of Francis McArdle resigned — Obadiah Scott Sheriff of 27th " Campbell County during the time prescribed by the Constitution he having been recommended agreably thereto. — And Cornelius Hale Assistant Judge of the Nicholas Circuit Court until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, in place of William Baker resigned

May 1807.

The Governor commissioned William M Rice and

2nd " Joseph Brinker Justices of the peace in Henry County during good behaviour they having been recommended agreably to the Constitution

The Governor commissioned Benjamin Summers

5th " Assistant Judge of the Battle Circuit Court until the end of the next session of the General Assembly in the place of John Cammeron resigned — and to accept of his Commission