Frankfort October 26th 1811.

The Governor commissioned Joseph Waters and Lindsay Powell two justices of the peace for Casey County in the room of Charles Sweeny appointed Sheriff and Joseph Dismukes resigned, they having been duly recommended.

The Governor Commissioned Allen T Hamilton a justice of the peace for the County of Gallatin in the place of Jonathan Smith deceased — he having been duly recommended.

30th Pro-tem The Governor Commissioned Nicholas Clarke Notary public of Jefferson County — until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly —

The Governor remitted to R. Scott of Campbell County a fine of forty shillings, imposed for Labouring on the Sabbath day.

The Governor remitted to William Peter, John Subley and William Subley the former, a fine of five dollars, and the two latter a fine of two dollars and fifty cents each, imposed for a breach of the peace.

November 2nd The Governor Commissioned Benjamin Gholson Coroner of Wayne County in the place of Bartholomew Haden resigned.

7th Also James Murry Coroner of Green County he having been duly recommended.

8th The Governor Commissioned Christian James Saunders Sheriff of Bullitt County — he having been duly recommended.

Frankfort November 8th 1811.

The Governor remitted to William Buster a fine of five dollars, imposed by Thomas Kennedy a justice of the peace for Garrard County, for an Affray.

The Governor remitted to Thomas Cox a fine of six dollars, eighty seven and an half cents, imposed by the Mercer Circuit Court, for failing to attend as a juror.

9th. The Governor Commissioned William B Long and Randolph Baily two justices of the peace in Woodford County in the place of Elisha Wooldridge resigned and William Vawter appointed Sheriff of said County — they having been duly recommended.

14th The Governor Commissioned James McNeill Sheriff of Knox County — he having been duly recommended

Also Robert Thomas Sheriff of Adair County having been duly recommended

Also Charles McKinney a justice of the peace in Adair County, in place of John Stapp resigned — having been duly recommended.

19th Pro tem The Governor Commissioned Nathan Lipscomb Major of the 2nd battalion in the 35th Regiment in the room of William Woods removed, until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly.

The Governor Commissioned Thomas Jenkins and John Throckmorton two justices of the peace in Nicholas County, in the place of William Boles removed and William Wallace deceased — they having been duly recommended.

Frankfort November 19th 1811.

The Governor commissioned John D. Young Surveyor of Fayette County in the place of Richard Higgins resigned he having been duly recommended.

20th The Governor Commissioned William Samuels a justice of the peace for Nelson County, in the place of William Chinowith resigned.

Also John Robertson a justice of the peace for the same County.

Also Jonathan Simpson a justice of the peace in Bairdstown, same County - they having been duly recommended.

22nd The Governor Commissioned Samuel Thompson a justice of the peace for Lincoln County, in place of John T. Bell resigned, he having been duly recommended.

The Governor remitted to William R. Jones a fine of twenty dollars imposed by the verdict of a jury, before Samuel Worrell a justice of the peace in Bourbon County; for a breach of the peace.

December 3rd The Governor Commissioned John Lowry Surveyor of Jessamine County in the room of William Lewis resigned - he having been duly recommended.