Millersburgh April 27th 1824

Dear Sir.

Owing to the death of the Sheriff of this County, it devolves on you to discharge the duty of appointing his successor. Feeling as we do an interest in this appointment we take the liberty of recommending to your notice your and our worthy friend Joseph Miller of this place as a suitable person to fill that office.

You are not unaware of the extent to which party spirit prevails in this county — and, ambitious as the federal party are to monopolize the offices of the Government and promote their friends to stations of honor and influence (and you must be apprised that this office is one of their strong holds in every county) there will be no pains spared by them to obtain the appointment for one of their own party. Mr. Miller is a true Democrat in principle devoted to the cause of republicanism — his character as a man unexceptionable and popular in this place and wherever he is known. Owing to the shortness of time afforded us for the advancement of the number of petitioners we have not been able to obtain, we presume one tenth part of the number which might be obtained. But on the the petition forwarded by to-day's mail, all the names have been collected since 11 o'clock this morning. Knowing as we do the state of the public mind in this county, we have no hesitation in assuring you that the appointment of Wm Miller would be universally approved by the Democratic party, and to many of the opposition, some of whose names are subscribed to the petition forwarded.

I remain for yourself our highest respects,

Millersburgh, April 28, 1826.

Dear Sir;

By this Mail a Petition in behalf of Joseph Miller for the office of High Sheriff will reach you. You know the Miller family has ever been consistent, as good genuine republicans, and have supported uniformly all the wholesome measures of which you have been the unceasing and unwearey advocate.

Independently of the qualifications of Mr. Miller, he has weight of character, and wealth in abundance to make all monies entrusted to him secure. He is a man beloved by all his acquaintances and they with one voice, as far as the Petition has been circulated have joined in recommending him. — Had we more time the List of subscribers could be extended to an enormous length. But, believe me, we have had but about an hour to go upon. Not one hour has elapsed since I first drew the Petition

You may be assured that in this quarter where our Sheriffs have been violent against us, it would be a favor added to the many others which you have granted that would give you a lasting place in the affections of your old constituents. In a word to be plain, it would produce a complete revolution in the Politics of this county. With sentiments of high respect, I remain your friend & obt. Svt
