To his Excellency Joseph Desha Esq. Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky your petitioners Jeremiah Hagan & Jonathan S. Hagan would most respectfully represent unto your Excellency that a few days since they ware travelling torrards home with their farther, that it was a verry cold evening & about dusk, their father called at a certain Joseph Steens to warm himself, that Steen & his family refused the old man admittance to warm, (he being very cold,) which somewhat agravated yr petitioners and they may have made use of some harsh expreshions, That Steens wife threw a stick at one of yr petitioners viz Jeremiah that he then without thinking of the consequences threw a small stick at her, yr petitioners further state that the children of Steen commenced throwing at them before they reached the house, but that they had no intention of makeing any distur bance, with Steen or his family, yr petitioners further state that Sd Steen went before R.
Maxey a Justice of the peace and sued out a warrant against yr petitioners and their farther Arthur R Hagan Sr. that the warrant was returned before R. D. Steenbergen Esqr, that a jury was summoned, Steen & his family were introduced as witness, and upon the trial, the Jury fined Jeremiah Hagan $14.50, and fined Jonathan S. Hagan in the sum of $10, yr petitioners state that they are poore and would have had to have gone to Jail had they not have pledged their only horse for the payment of the money on April next, and they fear that they cannot raise the money and that thereby they will loose their horse, yr petitioners therefore pray yr Excellency to remit the fine and as in duty bound they will ever pray &c Feby. 7th 1825

To His Excellency J Desha governor of Kentucky the petition of the subscriber William Palmanteer respectfully shews.

That your petitioner is a citizen of Lexington and has for many years maintained a good character as a peaceable citizen. That residing near your petitioner there is a disorderly family of the name of Clozier a son belonging to said family has been in the habit of practising small tricks upon your orators family and on yesterday this boy threw stones at the family and hit a servant and cut his arm your petitioner went to the habitation of said Clozier to complain to his father they supposed parents were not at home. shortly afterwards the wife came into the yard of your petitioner, under pretence of getting water, when she commenced abusing your petitioner in a most indecent manner. and when your petitioner asked her to go away she attempted to throw her pigeon of water on your petitioner whereupon your petitioner pushed her away and some of the water fell on her and some on your petitioner. She then picked up a piece of scantling about three inches square and attempted to strike your petitioner over the head, your petitioner warded it off, and not being willing to strike a woman and fearful that she would do him some injury your petitioner entered into the house and left her in possession of the field. On this morning a warrant was served on your petitioner to appear immediately before a magistrate your orator went in pursuit of a Bishop a young man who was present and saw the whole transaction; but before your petitioner could find him the woman went to the justice and was admitted to swear and your petitioner being absent and no other testimony heard your petitioner was fined to the great amount of 20$ and costs to be recovered by the magistrate on the jury were discharged just as your Petitioner was going to the Place of Trial.

Your Petitioner can prove by the young man present that the woman behaved in a manner too base to describe; and that your Petitioner not only did not assault her, but actually fled to avoid her. Never theless the base woman swore that your Petitioner struck her.

Your Petitioner believing that he was guilty of no fault prays your excellency to remit the fine as he is ill able to pay it even if he has been justly punished

Your Petitioner will Pray

To his excellency Joseph Desha Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

We the undersigned Citizens of the County of Shelby respectfully show and represent that at the present Term of the Shelby Circuit Court One John Harden was indicted for stealing a negro boy the property of Henry Kuykendall and found Guilty by the Petit Jury, that the first Jury sworn and impannelled on his trial could not agree on a Verdict of Guilty being divided 8 for Acquitting and 4 for Conviction, the Jury being broken by three of the Jurors leaving the Jury room a second pannel was had, and a Verdict after the Jury had retired from the bar about 12 hours was found against the Prisoner. We further represent that the said Harden is a young man, is poor and has a Wife and 3 small children dependant upon him for support, that the said Harden is a very ignorant man, and it is probable he either mistook the rights of the Owner of the slave or was over persuaded to perpetrate the act We therefore think the said Harden
