To his Excellency John Breathitt Governor of the commonwealth of Kentucky

We your petitioners would humbly represent to your excellency that Jacob Taylor a citizen of this county was fined five dollars & costs for an affray in the village of Minerva for which he gave security to the officer An individual had come to the village boasting he could whip any man in ten miles Taylor's could not brook this a riot took place & they were seperated immediately without any injury to either party

We would further state to your excellency that Sd Taylor is a poor man Depending on his labour for support and is in general a peaceable citizen we humbly hope you will remit the fine against the Sd Taylor, and your petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray
