To His Excellency

Joseph Desha Governor of

The Commonwealth of Kentucky

We Whose names are hereto subscribed, Females of the City of Louisville and its Vicinity respectfully solicit Executive Clemency, for the unfortunate Daniel W Smith.

Not Wishing to interfere in the administration of our happy Government, (a different sphere being assigned us by nature and Custom) We have thought that Your Excellency might receive some satisfaction from the knowledge that you were employed to the exercise of Heaven's darling attribute (Mercy) by a portion of your Country women And therefore presume to address you.

We deeply deplore the Consequences of this fatal Rencounter and mingle our sympathies with every Sufferer

To err is but Our nature" Perfection belongs not to man" Atonement is all that is required by laws human and divine, When therefore We view the sufferings hardships and privations of this unfortunate man and if released, turned from house Stripped of his little All, save the affection of an almost broken hearted and an innocent Infant Wife, his release is most earnestly requested by Your Excellency's Friends &

the fine ——— $1 — 00

Personally appeared Samuel Hawkins before me one of the Commonwealths Justices for said County and made Oath that at the muster of June 1825 that he faithfully mustered under Captain John Deadman and done his faithful duty &c and that time he believed he was the legal and proper prevailed company to said Deadmans Company to which he mustered with — and when he left Capt Johnall Jordans Company. he the said Jordan had a

Recd Sept 11. 1828

His excelleney the Governor Joseph Desha.

The undersigned Your Petitioners would humbly beg leave to represent, That unfortunately a certain Edwd. S. Bond became engaged in a fight some days since with a certain Wm. Elkins, both of this place, And though they both acted some what imprudently, Yet we are inclined to believe the interferance of your excelleney would in no wise hinder the administration of Justice — but on the Contrary the remission of E. Bonds fine (which is 16$ & some cts.) would save his family from much distress — Edwd. Bond though poor, is much respected in the County, and we do not believe a recovery of the fine would much benefit the State, but on the Contrary operate as oppressive and injurious not only to him, but also to his family — being well aware of the Circumstances attending the Case we feel no hesitation in Recommending to the notice of your Excellency this young man whose situation we deplore trusting that your excelleney will remit his fine — and save his family from distress or himself from imprisonment — for his Character we would recommend your Excellency to Messrs Lewis Sanders & Cyrus Wingate Esqrs — deeming a further detail unnecessary, we pray a remission of his fine & in duty bound will ever pray &c.

$8 remitted —

To his Excelency Joseph Desha Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Your Petitioner would humbly represent unto your Excellency, that by the authority of the undersigned subscribers who were of the jury, that assessed the fine, of which your petitioner, now prays an remittance, that the evidence produced in the case, before the Court was as follows, (to wit) N. C. Johnson swore that your petitioner, went to the door of Sd Budgens - (who your Excelency is apprised was a party ex criminas, with your petitioner, and there stated to the Sd Budgens, that he had treated him badly; in some transactions, that had taken plan between them before, but witness did not recollect what the matter was, witness further stated that the Sd Budgens, went to his door with the yard stick and struck the horse of your petitioner over the head with it, and also struck him some or twice afterwards and further that your petitioner got off of his horse and went to the door, when Sd Budgens, went to meet him with the yard stick, in one hand and also a turned rule in the other hand, and he shortly saw, your petitioner through the window, with his face covered with blood, which proceeded from a wound, that your petitioner had got at the door, But witness, did not see Sd Hudgens strike, because he the witness was setting behind the door. — A le Miller, a witness, being sworn, said that he was in his shop near the Sd Hudgens house, and that your petetioner, did approach the house of Sd Hudgens, but the conversation that did take place between them witness did not hear, but he says that your petitioner did strike with a working cane that he had in hand, on the posts, posts, and boy of Sd post that stood before the door of Sd Hudgens house, (in which a store, and the post office was kept at that time) and that he saw your petitioner, step back into the street with his face bloody, but did not see the stroke struck, but further he states that he saw the Sd Hudgens advance on your petitioner, in the midle of the street, and strike at him two or three times with a stick, or a large bow of a door — S. Monday being sworn said, that he did not see the commencement of the affray, but at the time that the Sd Hudgens, advanced on your petitioner in the street, he was present, and that the Sd Hudgens pushed on your petitioner, with the bar by the door, and in his first attempt to strike he was prevented, by some person standing by, and also the second attempt was prevented by some other person, but that he the sd Hudgens still continued his efforts to strike, and made a third stroke, which the witness, kept from striking your petitioner, by the interposition of his own arm, and received the force of the blow on it, which became very much injured thereupon and remained sore and much bruised for several days — which Jeff. Heffington is supported by Joseph Mizner — who Sutton, says, that he saw the commencement, and conclusion of the affray, and that the first that he saw was your petitioner riding up the street that way, and shortly afterwards he heard some high words pass which induced him, to draw to the place, that when he arrived, your petitioner stept back from the door with his face very much cut and bleeding rapidly and he (the witness) believed that he (your petitioner) had received the wound at the door, and witness further states that the altercation, title kept up between, your petitioner and Sd Hudgens, and at length he saw & Hudgens advance on your petitioner cut in the midle of the street with the bar of a door 3 feet long and 3 inches wide and 1 inch thick, and commenced with all energey, to commit a battery on your petitioner, ~~but was prevented~~ as aforesaid ~~I Hopper comes in this statement, with the above~~ & S. Petty likewise — Your Petitioner would now represent unto your Excellence that the above detail intirely corresponds with the evidence given in before the court, which will be confirmed by the subscription of those who gave in testimony, and others who heard it — Your petitioner would now most humbly represent unto your Excellence that after a survey of the premises, as handed to you before, and also the wideness now detailed to you, that you would extend to your petitioner that lenity which the laws of our country allows you to exercise, in the remitting of fines granting reprieves — pardons &c and Your Petitioner will ever pray —
