Hon. H. K. Bourne,

New Castle, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of yours of the 18th.

In the matter of the application of W. L. Nuttall, he states in his application, and the proof shows, that his wife has $3,000.00 worth of property, which makes it impossible for him to be allowed a pension under the law.

In the matter of the application of C. A. Blackaby, the war records show that he enlisted October 16, 1864, in Co.G, 6th Battalion Confederate Cavalry, and that as x one of a number of Confederate deserters received at Louisville, Ky. Nov.5, 1864, he took the oath of allegiance to the U. S. Government Nov.20th, and it is further shown that he deserted at Jonesboro, Tenn. Which renders it impossible for him to be granted a pension under the law.

The application of Mrs. Dettie P. Jessee has been allowed and she has received one payment on her pension and will receive another after the 15th of August.

Very truly,

Commissioner.

WJS-C

March 29th, 1915.

Hon. H. K. Bourne,

New Castle, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to yours of the 20th relative to the application of Dr. Nuttall. There is no provision in the law for deducting the amount of an indebtedness of an applicant from the value of the property which he owns. Consequently, the only plan that I could suggest would be that the Doctor and his wife proceed to adjust their indebtedness, and after they have done so, if the amount of property they own is less than $2500.00, to file proof showing the true situation with regard to the matter. But in the event that should be done, a pension could only be granted from the time that the proof of such adjustment reached this office, as he is not eligible to a pension under the present conditions, and could not be allowed a pension to cover any part of the time that he was barred under the law.

Very truly,

Commissioner.
