and has a wife and several small children and has no way to git money to pay the said fines and the costs which is near as much as the fines without selling or braeaking the small portion of property of your petitioner said a a sacrifice as money is very scarce which will in fact and in truth take the only Milk Cows your petitioner has to give milk for his children to pay the same your petitioner will state to your honour that he is truly sorry that he did in the heat of passion git into the affair as he is not disposed to be a man that in his cool and reflecting moments that was ever been in a Scrape of that Kind.

Therefore your petitioner prays your Excellency to extend that Mercy or clemency to your petitioner that you have a right by the Constitution to do and remit the said fines aforesaid and although the amount appears small still when that amount has to be paid out of a poor mans property by the sales of an officer it comes hard and by a Remission of the aforesaid fines it will not impoverish the Commonwealth But Much Relieve your petitioner and your petitioner will ever pray &c

His Excellency Joseph Desha
Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky
Frankfort Ky.

To his Excellency Joseph Desha Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky Your petitioners beg leave to represent that James Campbell a poor though honest citizen of Rusel County was presented to the Grand Jury of Rusel by a certain Jane Embry of notoriously bad character as was proven in Court for getting drunk and for swearing on the 24th day of August last 165 oaths and on the 25th day of same month for swearing 81 profane oaths for which he was fined by the Judge of the Russel Circuit Court in the sum of 825 shillings for the 165 oaths. and 405 shilling for the 81. oaths & 5 shillings for drunkenness amounting in all to the sum of 205 dollars & 5 shillings. Your petitioners further set forth that that said Campbell is at times subject to intoxication and when irritated sometimes uses profane language, and that the informant Jane Emery is a very litigious & quarrelsome person & had quarreled with the family of said Campbell at the time he is charged with the swearing & drunkenness aforesaid and used every endeavour to aggravate Campbell for the purpose of making him swear that she might give information and stated in her evidence that it was for the purpose of obtaining revenge that she gave the information. We further states that said Campbell is a poor man & has a numerous family to support and that the collection of the fines would bring certain ruin on his family we therefore hope your Excellency will interpose and remit the fines assessed against the said Campbell and as in duty bound

Ky

To his Excellency Joseph Desha Govr of Kentucky

Your petitioner Thomas Boyd would respectfully represent unto your excellency that on the 5th day of the present month Your petitioner was fined five dollars for a breach of the peace with a certain Thomas Dolly. Your petitioner would represent, that he was at his own house and that, he considers himself much abused by the said Dolly. Your petitioner also states that the said Dolly has been much in the habit of vilifying and abusing your petition-er, & at length took the liberty of doing so at the house of your petitioner, which is always considered a mans castle of defence -

Your petitioner candidly states that he was actuated from the strongest feeling of passion and from the impulse of the moment, and could your petitioner have had one moment to have reflected, he could not have been induced to have laid hands on the said Dolly, but as it is your petitioner considers he was compelled to do what he did in self defence & from every principle of honor, he could not avoid transgressing as he did. Your petitioner therefore prays your excellency to remit said fine, and as in duty bound he will ever pray &c
