The voucher for her pension was received January 8th the day after her burial.

I am also writing to you for information as to whether it is possible for me to collect the payment of this pension for the two months that she lived, November and December 1937. I am not altogether familiar with the Confederate Pension law, of course know that it ceases on the death of the pensioner, but as the funds are badly needed at this time for her expenses at sickness and death, thought I would write you for this information. Her Pension Certificate is No. 370., issued June 30th, 1932. I am Respectfully, Miss Charlotte Marshall
