The records show that Samuel Tindall, private, Captain Gustavus Dedman's Company, 2d Kentucky Infantry (subsequently Company I, 2d Kentucky Mounted Infantry), Confederate States Army, enlisted July 28, 1861. On the company roll covering the period from May 1 to August 31, 1864, last roll on file, he was reported: "Absent wounded in Hospital." A later record shows that he took the oath of allegiance June 15, 1865, at Chattanooga, Tennessee, but the date and place of his capture is not shown.

The affiant, John H. Crain states that he was a member of Company I 2nd Kentucky Infantry of the Army of Confederacy in the war between the States.

He states that he knew Samuel Tindall who was also a member of the same Company and Regiment. He says that the said Samuel Tindall enlisted in the said Company in July 1861 at Camp Boone, Tenn; that the said Samuel Tindall fought at Ft. Donaldson, Hartsville, Stone River, Jackson and Chickamauga, was wounded at the latter place and long disabled but rejoined his Company in the Autumn of 1864 and took part in the mounted engagements until the close of the war.

Affiant states that his recollection is that Samuel Tindall surrendered with his Company at Washington, Ga. in April 1865 on the 10th or 12th of the month.

Affiant states further that the said Samuel Tindall was a good soldier and always at his post of duty.

August 5, 1912.

In the matter of the application for a pension of Mary Ann Tindall, widow of Sam Tindall.

The above case being called in open court for oral proof the applicant submitted the testimony of Mattie E. Long, and J. W. Williams, Post Office of both, Taylorsville, Ky., both of whom were duly sworn before giving their testimony.

Mattie E. Long and J. W. Williams stated that they had known Mary Ann Tindall for 7 years during all of which time the said applicant Mary Ann Tindall had resided in Spencer County, Ky. They stated that the applicant was very old and infirm and not able to earn anything at all by her own labor for her own support. They stated that the applicant, Mary Ann Tindall had no property of any kind or character.

It is therefore adjudged by the court that the said Mary Ann Tindall has resided in Spencer County, Ky., for 7 years last past and still so resides and that she is not able to earn anything by her labor for her support and that she has no property of any kind. It is recommended by the Court that her claim for a pension be allowed.
