To His Excellency Gov. John Brathell

Gov. of Kentucky

Your petitioner Cathy Lyons a free woman of Color, would respectfully state unto your Excellency that on Tuesday last she was fined in the Mayors Court, of this City, the Sum of Fifty Dollars, for an alleged breach of the peace committed by her on the person of one John Gillespie - Now your petitioner will not deny the fact but that she struck Mr. Gillespie; but her apology was as follows: Mr. Gillespie came to the back door of her house with a Cow hide in his hand, & threatened to Cow hide her, and every one that has a house her house; and actually struck her three times before she resisted, on which the petty assault, that she took the Cow hide from him, and struck him several times, but she was unable to prove that Mr. Gillespie struck her first, and she was sworn by others to strike him, but could not prove that he struck first - Now your petitioner states that this affair was not one of her own seeking Mr. Gillespie with violence entered her house, & she thought & now thinks she had a right to put him out, & up the aid strike Mr. Gillespie with his own Cow

Louisville Sept. 15. 1832

I would state to his Excellency the Govr. of Kentucky that I think I understand the Cause of quarrel between the petitioner and Mr. Gillespie - Wilkys Counsel has I have no doubt been Counsel throout - I have Counseled with Mr. Gillespie after he had Counseled with Wilky and he seemed to regret as much as the petitioner did, that he was fined - I trust & hope his Excellency will remit the fine — Chs. M Thruston

The undersigned Citizens of Louisville & Jefferson as neighbours of Milly Lyons unite in her petition & pray that her fine may be remitted — and as a proper subject for executive clemency do recommend

Milly Lyons your petitioner, Is so far as I am acquainted with her is a well behaved woman & as this is the first time she has ever been before the Mayor to my knowledge & in this case I do believe her to be Justifiable as the person on whom the committed the Breach committed to me that he took a cowhide to the house of Milly - but was not proved
