Dear Sir:-

In the matter of the application of Mrs. Katherine Sublett, seeking a pension - It seems that through an over-sight of our County Judge, the papers were misplaced or lost for a time, so that the law could not be complied with as to the pension, because the Findings of the County Judge as required by law was not sent you.

I think you will find now that the law has been complied with here, and will give you pleasure at the earliest time to pass upon the application of Mrs. Katherine Sublett. Please examine this, and act upon it at your earliest time and oblige, and if there is any ommission in any way, please report to me at once, and I will have the same attended to.
