A company of Cavalry has been raised and organized in this Regiment according to Law; Officers have been nominated, and the nominations forwarded to the late Governor: No commissions issued, and no reason was assigned for it: with much persuasion I have thus long held the Company together; it is a hard service core, and I should be mortified at their dispolution- I hope their commissions will not be longer delayed; and it will be but justice to those gentlemen that they should take rank from the arrival of their nominations at the Secretaries office. If an impediment still exists to the emination of commissions, it will be satisfactory to be advised of it. I am very respectfully
