State of Kentucky, Executive Department,
Frankfort, June 21, 1875.

Whereas a petition from the Presiding Judge of the Shelby County Court is on file in this office showing "that there was a cowardly assassination committed in Our County - Shelby - in the evening of the 18th of this month: One Mary Regan, a man of color, was shot and almost instantly killed by some unknown party or parties. Regan was one of the principal witnesses against the parties who were charged with the offense committed some months since, in which the negro girl was shot, just south of Clay Village, and some other negroes whipped, and suspicion points" &c. And whereas the killing described in said petition is of the most savage, brutal and inexcusable character known to a civilized people, and must therefore excite the greatest solicitude in all good citizens for its exposure and punishment. Wherefore, I, Preston H. Leslie, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby offer a reward of Five Hundred Dollars for the apprehension and conviction of any person or persons guilty of said crime. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of state. Done at the City of Frankfort, this 21st day of June, 1875, and 84th, year of the Commonwealth.

Seal.
