New York April 15th 1845.

Col. Tillett,

Dear Sir,

Enclosed you will find a letter from several of my friends, all good Whigs, to the Governor of Kentucky, recommending my appointment as a Commissioner of that State, which you will greatly oblige me by handing to him on your return, with such remarks as you may deem proper.

Mr. Staples, one of the Signers of the aforesaid letter, is a brother of Bishop Smith's wife, of your State; Mr. Ward is a well known Whig of this city, and the writer of the accompanying letter to Mr. Clay; Mr. Fish was one of our Representatives in the last Congress; Mr. Fisk is the Cashier of one of our largest Banking Institutions; Mr. Inglis was formerly a Judge of our Court of Common Pleas, and Mr. Fowler was one of our most active politicians during the last Presidential contest.

I give you this sketch of these individuals that you may know something of their Standing. Other names might have been obtained, ad libitum, but I thought it needless to procure more.

The letter from my respected friend Mr. Ward to Mr. Clay, will, I doubt not, induce Mr. C's co-operation.

If you can procure for me, (in case my application succeeds,) an abstract of the laws of Kentucky in relation to Commissioners and the proper mode of acknowledging instruments to be recorded there, you will do me a great favor, and any expenses that you may be at in relation to this business I will thank you to make known to me.

With much respect I remain
your obliged friend & servant.
Geo. Woodman.

To His Excellency,
William Owsley,
Governor of the State of Kentucky;

Dear Sir;

My friend Col. Saml. G. Fillet has had the kindness to make an application to your Excellency, for my appointment as Commissioner for the State of Kentucky, and has offered to see you again upon the Subject.

As my former letters to you were lost, enclosed I hand you another, from several of our most respectable and distinguished citizens, which, I hope, will satisfy you that the office would not be in unworthy hands; and if you can confer it upon me, I shall feel greatly obliged to you.

With much respect I remain
Your very obdt. Svt.
Lev. Woodman.

To the Governor of the State of Kentucky.

Philadelphia, April 1845.

The Subscribers having entire confidence in the Integrity and Capacity of John Binns, Esquire, many years an Alderman of the City of Philadelphia, recommend him to your Excellency as a proper person to be appointed a Commissioner to take the acknowledgments of Deeds, &c, and request from you for him that appointment; which we feel assured will be particularly acceptable to the Members of the Bar, and be useful to the Community.

Richard Vaux
Recorder of the City of Phila

P McCall
Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

I have an intimate knowledge of all the circumstances attendant upon the above application and public and private grounds do most strenuously recommend a most effectual cooperation therewith. The object is to unite those powers from all the States in one man, and if there be no power to appoint at present, to wait till a vacancy shall occur. A universal desire of all portions of the community has projected this plan and designated John Binns Esq. as better qualified to fill the station than any Gentleman we have among us.
