Nancy ark 12th Oct 1813.

To his Excellency Isaac Shelby.

Governor of the State of Kentucky.—

Sir

Your highly esteemed favour of the 5th of may last, was handed me Soon after my arrival at this post, and should have been acknowledged before this; had not the Intervention of Savage indispositions made it impracticable.—

However, I now improve this Earliest moment of Tranquility to offer to your Excellency as well as the State over which you preside, my most Sincere & unfeigned thanks for the high Encomiums you have been pleased to pass on my Conduct Concerning the affair of the Genl. Armstrong at Fayal.—

Believe me, Sir nothing could be more pleasing, - as give me greater Satisfaction — than the acknowledged high approbation of my conduct — By so Brave & patriotic a State a State, & its able & Honorable Commander as the State of Kentucky.

Observing that there are parts of your Excellency's letter that relate to Government & the Navy - as well as the officers & crews of G. ourselves (particularly the latter) I have taken the liberty to publish it for their perusal - hoping at the same time it may fully meet your Excellency's approbation.

With Great Consideration & Respect
I have the Honor to Remain

Breckenridge County Dec.r 25.th 1815

D.r Sir,

If the legislature should take up the subject of Steam boats agreable to your communication, it is scarcely probable that they will have them all built at one place on the Ohio. I will therefor nominate the mouth of Hardins creek alias Sinking in this County, as a convenient place for that business, as there is a variety of excellent timber, a fine harbour, which is never desturbed by the ice, a Sawmill & Great Mill on the said Creek about three miles up said creek, where plank of any discreption & quality may be had, and Bread stuff which may be transported from the Mill by water to the boat yard, I will therefore refer you to Majr. Thos. Holt who have lately viewed the place, and who will hand you this
