Bullitt County, August 2nd 1813

Sir,

I have it in command from Lt Colonel David Grable, of the 32nd Regt Kentucky Militia to signify to your Excellency his willingness and anxiety to accept of any command your Excellency would please to assign him in any subsequent requisition of militia troops from this State. How far such a manifestation is consistent with military Etiquette, I am not prepared to say. I am only acquainted with the Colonels anxiety on the subject; and feel willing to vouch for his ability to serve.

I have the honor to be

Dr Sir,

having Seen your address to the Militia of this State I have determined to be one of your band — In the Early part of my life I took much delight in Volenteering my Services to persue the Savages both when they inmested our frontier and to their towns I Crossed the Ohio river Six times with my rifle on my Shoulder both as an Officer and private ~~A~~ on the disafficient Campaigne from this State, and was with Genl Wayne when he gave the last decisive blow at the rapides, Since that time I have gotten a large and helpless family and was willing to have Staydat home with them had not my Countrys Cause demanded my assistance — late last Evening my brother Peter handed me a letter addressed by your Excellency to him as Major and me Conducted it was possible you might have made a Mistake in the name as he never has born that title — I have Sir had the honor to Command the 1st Batt in 3d Regt for nearly three years and am perhaps nearly if not quite the Eldest now in the brigade and if Sir my past Services with the Experience I have Gained Entitle me to a

Your favor bearing date the 31st ultimo I received on the evening of the 2nd inst. by the mail. I was previously making every exertion in my power to induce our citizens to turn out at this awful conjecture in the affairs of our country, and had succeeded myself determined to go out with Col Scherman. I had also, previous to the receipt of your letter, taken measures to call my Regiment together, and they will convene on the 16th at Falmouth, our county town. Our Regiment has been much reduced by volunteering, but rest assured sir, I shall continue to be prompt in my exertions to influence as many as possible to accede to the present call. I think that twenty or thirty, or perhaps more, will turn out from this county. I shall meet you at the Ft. at Newhall, with all the force I can collect. I have relinquished the idea of going with Col Scherman, and will march with you to any place where an enemy can be found, and in any capacity, even from a soldier in the ranks to that of any other in which I may have the good fortune to be placed.

With sentiments of great consideration I am sir, your Ob. Servt.
