I see the Board is passing on "applications of the most in need first."

Surely mine is as urgent as any - A lone widow (sister mine) in poor health with paralyzed thumb so cannot work. as here to live. and the flood conditions cutting me off from help I might have. I have waited so long. few shall be left-out altogether. Having sent in all the information required and can give additional testimony from good citizens of Morgan with that

I have made application for pension, filling question blank, and complying with all the requirements through (Co.) Judge Lilly. Capt. Wall, and others of Morgan field. to Hon. W. J. Stone pension agent Frankfort Ky. Not receiving any information from him, and seeing my name does not appear with other applicants of Confederate Veterans and widows. I do not understand, so, come to you to ask for any attention you may give it, and secure a consideration of my claim

Dear Sir:

It is with reluctance I trouble you with my business, but sometimes our necessities push us on to persistence. I am the widow of F. M. McCormick - a soldier in the Confederate Army - entered at the first and remained throughout the war.

The affiant, A. R. Lynn, states that he is a resident of Union County, Kentucky and is sixty-seven years old and served as a soldier in the Confederate Army in the 10th Kentucky Regiment of Cavalry under Col. Adam Johnson.

The affiant says that while as a soldier he met Marion McCormick in the service as a Confederate soldier some time in the year 1862, and that he and McCormick served together in the same regiment until 1863 when this affiant was separated from McCormick and was sent North on Morgan's raid, while McCormick was left with the command in Tennessee. The affiant says he was captured in Ohio and sent to Camp Douglas and that McCormick was captured some time afterward and was imprisoned at Camp Chase and was released from that prison at the close of the war as this affiant verily believes. The said McCormick has been dead many years, leaving a widow but this affiant is not acquainted with her.

The affiant, Wm. Frazier, states that he is a resident of Union County, Kentucky and is 70 years old and served as a soldier in the Confederate Army during the Civil War and that he knew Marion McCormick in his life time, having met him in the year 1871 and knew him from that time until his death. During the life time of said Marion McCormick he was acquainted with his wife, Mrs. P. M. McCormick, during the life time of her husband, Marion McCormick, and he has known her and been intimately acquainted with her ever since and to this affiant's knowledge she has never remarried since the death of her soldier husband.
