Dr. E. M. Willey, Supt.,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I find that your Asylum lacks only 36 of being full. Hopkinsville lacks 180, Lakeland lacks 190. In view of these facts, an application having been made to me for the removal of Jas. Mobley, recently sent to your Asylum from Mercer County, you are hereby ordered to transport him to Lakeland, Ky. under proper guard. If there are others you would like to send, you can recommend to me as many as twenty, and they can all be sent at once. You should exercise due care in seeing that these people are properly guarded and properly treated on the way.

This action is taken under Sec. 249, Kentucky Statutes.

Yours
Wm O. Bradley,
Governor of Ky."

Sims & Covington
vs)
State of Kentucky

Claim for fee in re Bowling Green Water Works.

I have no doubt the services were rendered and were of value to the State, but am of opinion the Governor of Kentucky had no legal right to make the employment May 2, 1892.

The Governor cannot employ except in such cases where provision for defense or prosecution was not otherwise provided by law. Prior to the employment, to wit April 7, 1890, the General Assembly provided by act that the Comwths Attys in each Circuit should attend to all civil cases & proceedings in the Circuit Court (Except Franklin Circuit) in which the Commonwealth was interested; and the provision of Art. 3. Chap. 5. General Statutes made it the duty of the County atty to conduct all cases in the County Court affecting the rights and interests of the county. Under

The Commonwealth of Kentucky,
