COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE

The Governor commuted the sentence of Wm. G. STIGLITZ from a term of five years in the State Reformatory, as fixed by the jury, to a term of forty-six months and twenty-six days, said Stiglitz having been convicted in Jefferson Circuit Court, Jany. term, 1932, for "Embezzling public funds". Executive clemency herein being recommended by petitions, letters and telegrams from prominent and influential citizens of different political persuasions and of religious beliefs, including Ministers of the Gospel, Attorneys at law, public officials and laymen, the list being on file but is too lengthy to copy or set out in detail herein. Also by ten of the trial jurors who sign a petition and also a letter from the eleventh juror, the twelfth juror having died; by Hon. W Clarke Otte, Commth's. Atty. and it appears that the said Stiglitz has been confined in the Reformatory almost two years, and that he will be entitled to a parole when he shall have served half of his sentence.

COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE

The Governor commuted the sentence of GEORGE HALL from four years to two years and ten months, he having been convicted in Floyd Circuit Court, Apr. term, 1932, for "Manslaughter". Clemency being recommended by the twelve jurors and by many of the County and Judicial District officers. It is made to appear that the decedent was abusing the sisters and bed-ridden brother of the defendant, and thus provoked the difficulty; and that he has wife and five children, in very poor circumstances.

COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE

The Governor commuted the sentence of ELBIE JARVIS from fifteen years to two & one-half years, he having been convicted in the Floyd Circuit Court, June term, 1930, for "Manslaughter". Clemency is asked by petition signed by forty well known citizens of Louisville, his former home; and it appears that he has served one year of his sentence, is only nineteen years of age, and has good prison record, with no previous criminal record; and the Commths's. Atty. offers no objection.

COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE

The Governor commuted the sentence of CECIL YORK from life sentence to eleven years in the State Reformatory. He having been convicted in Bell Circuit Court, March term, 1928, for "Murder." Clemency is recommended by affidavits filed herein of Dee and Mary Miller, father and mother of the deceased, and of Jim Smith, Alice Smith and Ella Hunt, all of whom testify that they were told by the decedent, after she was shot, that the defendant herein did not do the shooting, but that it was done by Viola Evans; by D M Bingham, former Co. Atty. of Bell County, who assisted in the prosecution, by Jailer J S Helton and deputy Jailer J W Ridings, Sheriff Mrs. Henry Broughton, Circuit Clerk R E Wilson, Co Atty Walter B Smith, Senator Ray B Moss, Hon N R Patterson who acted as Commth's Atty on the trial, and by petitions signed by 280 persons. And it appears that the defendant has made a model prisoner.
