Abstract of testimony submitted in proof of Confederate horse claim of George Adcock, file under Act of Congress approved February 27, 1902, for horse, baggage and side arms, stated at $170.00.

1. Affidavit of George Adcock, dated June 8, 1905, stating that he was a member of Co. C, Ky. Vol. Cav., C.S.A.; that he was paroled about the first day of April, 1865, at Nashville, Tenn.; that he kept his parole in good faith; which has been lost; that his horse, saddle and side arms, owned and used by him in the Confederate service at and prior to the surrender, were taken by U.S. troops, commanded by General Wolford at Nashville, Tenn.

2. Affidavit of George Jeffries, dated June 16, 1905, corroborating claimant's affidavit dated June 8, 1905, above referred to.

3. Affidavit of Abe Rucker, dated June 16, 1905, corroborating claimant's affidavit dated June 8, 1905, above referred to.

4. Affidavit of George Adcock, Defoe, Ky., dated Nov. 7, 1906, stating that he was a member of Co. C, 8th Ky. Cav., C.S.A., commanded by Capt. Wm. N. Stephens; that he or the notary made a mistake in preparing his claim when he was made to say that he was surrendered and paroled at Nashville, Tenn., but that he was in fact surrendered and paroled at Mt. Sterling, Ky., about May 1, 1865, at which time and place, his horse, saddle and bridle, owned and used by him in the Confederate service, were taken by U.S. troops under General E. H. Hobson; that said property was never returned to him nor compensated for.

5. Affidavit of Geo. W. Jeffries, Defoe, Ky., dated Dec. 24, 1906, stating that he and claimant served in Co. C, 8th Ky. Cav., C.S.A., and were surrendered and paroled at Mt. Sterling, Ky., about May 1, 1865, at which time and place claimant's horse, saddle and bridle were taken by U.S. troops under General E. H. Hobson.

6. Affidavit of Abe Rucker, Defoe, Ky., dated Dec. 24, 1906, stating that he and claimant served in Co. C, 8th Ky. Cav., C.S.A., and were surrendered and paroled at Mt. Sterling, Ky., about May 1, 1865, at which time and place claimant's horse, saddle and bridle were taken by U.S. troops under General E. H. Hobson.
