To his Excelency James Garrard Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Your Memorialist, humbly sheweth that sometime, in the year 1798, he was in the employ of a certain John Hanley, of Logan County, and on a certain day, in the year aforesaid, drove a certain Waggon, the property of him the said Hanley, when the Sheriff of s. County came, and levied a Fieri Facias on the same, your Memorialist through ignorance of the Laws of the State, and supposing that if the property was taken out of my hands, I should be accountable for the same to the aforesaid Hanley, innocently, took the waggon forward and drove her into Russellville and gave her up to the aforesaid Hanley. — The Sheriff of the aforesaid County of Logan, exhibited a presentment against your Memorialist, in the district Court of Logan, which was brought to trial last June term; and your Memorialist, ignorantly, relying on the rectitude of my Conduct, as above never drew, or made any defence on the trial; and the Jury immersed your Memorialist in the sum of one hundred Dollars. and the Fieri Facias is levied on the property of your Memorialist aforesaid. — Now your Memorialist having no remedy; but in your Excelencys Clemency, humbly prayeth that your Excelency, will remit the fine

To James Garard

To his Excellency James Garard Esq Governr of the Commonwealth of Kentucky your petitioners humbly complaining Sheweth unto your Excellency

That in the year 1798 the District Court holden at Logan County entered up & adjudged against a certain Joseph Boone for a Debt of one hundred Dollars a certain John Hanley property in Logan County Your petitioners beg leave to set forth that the said Boone has been a Citizen of this County of Warren for about seven years during which time he has conducted himself with propriety & moral circumspection & has uniformly been a peaceable & useful member of society & we do sincerely believe that he did & committed the aforesaid crime ignorantly & without a knowledge of the greatness of the offence & the danger to which he was subjecting himself And we beg leave to suggest as our opinion & firm belief that if your Excellency could consistent with your sense of your duty remit the aforesaid fine that he would never commit the like or any other offence knowingly
