Louisville Jany 21st 1826

His Excellency Joseph Desha Governor of Kentucky.

Upon a review of my present professional & pecuniary engagements I am convinced they are incompatible with an acceptance of the Office of Judge of the Court of Appeals with the office of — which I have been honored. Whatever gratification it might give me to serve my Country in a station so dignified, it is nevertheless my duty to remember it might not be done by a sacrifice of prior claims upon my justice. I only regret the affection did not occur earlier with the present force; a regret which is however softened by the confidence I feel your Excellency will experience no difficulty in supplying my place.

Very respt
