Application for Pension.

This application having been filed and laid over for one month, and the applicant together with two witnesses being before the court and duly sworn and interrogated, and the court being advised would most respectfully submit the following finding. That the applicant is entirely worthy of belief, and is in need of the benefits of this act.

Her Husband seems to have made a good soldier, and the court can cheerfully testify as to reliability of the subscribing witnesses.

All of which is respectfully reported,
