State of Kentucky,
Graves County Court. Regular Term, Monday, August 19¼,1912.

In the matter of application for pension of J. S. Wilhoite, whose post office address is Hickory Grove, Graves County, Kentucky, R. F. D. No. 2 the court makes the following report of findings, viz: That the applicant is 70 years of age; that he is and has been a resident of this State 25 years; that he has real estate worth $1800. and personal property to the amount of $300.; that his income amounts to $200. per year; that on account o of his advanced age and infirmities he is not able to earn a reasonable support for himself; that he does not now and has never received a pension from any State or Government.

Then came J. L. Cosby, whose address is Hickory Grove, Ky. R. F. D. No. 2, and J. L. Quisenberry, whose address is Melber, Ky. R. F. D. No. 1, who after having been sworn testified as follows: That they have known the applicant more than 10 years that he is a resident of this State and County; that he owns real estate to the amount of $1800. and personal property worth about $250.; that his income is not sufficient for a reasonable support for himself, and that on account of infirmities he is not able to earn a reasonable support.

Wherefore in view of the foregoing facts it is the judgment of the court that said applicant should be granted a pension and the court so recommends.
