S. A. HORNBECK

Enlisted in Aug.1864,in Co.D, 1st Ky.Cav., and was surrendered and paroled at Washington, Ga. May 11th, 1865, and released at Nashville, Tenn. May 22nd, 1865. This application was filed May 19, 1919, but proof filed with the application ~~at that time showed that he had an income of $350.00~~ the previous year, which rendered it impossible for him to be granted a pension under the law. Proof filed with his application March 23rd, 1920, shows that his income has been reduced until it is not over $100.00 a year, and a pension is allowed from that date.

IN THE MATTER OF CLAIM OF

S. A. HORNBECK ON PETITION

FOR FEDERAL PENSION.

- - - - - - -

The following evidence was introduced on behalf of petitioner before Hon. C. P. Bradbury, Judge:

S. A. Hornbeck, called on his own behalf, being first duly sworn, and examined by Mr. T. C. Carroll, counsel for petitioner, testified as follows:

Q. Mr. Hornbeck, state your name ?

A. S. A. Hornbeck.

Q. When were you born ?

A. On the first day of February, 1844.

Q. Mr. Hornbeck, you served in the Civil War ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For how many years ?

A. In the last years of the war.

Q. On which side ?

A. The Confederate side.

Q. When did you enlist, Mr. Hornbeck ?

A. Sir ?

Q. When did you enlist ?

A. In the summer of '64.

Q. Under whom did you serve, and in which Company ?

A. Why, I served under two Commanders during the year. The first commander I was under was John Lyon; and then I was transferred to the First Kentucky Cavalry; and it was not long after that until the War was closed.

Q. How did you get out of the War ?

A. I was paroled.

Q. Where ?

A. At Washington, Georgia.

Q. When ?

A. The first part of May. I don't recollect the date.

Q. What year ?

A. 1865.

Q. Mr. Hornbeck, what is the value of your property, both real and personal ?

A. Well, I own a one-third interest in my home valued at about $3000.00.

Q. What would be the value of the property that you own, then ?

A. That is all I own.

Q. About $1000.00 ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much did you make last year,- about ?

A. Oh, I have kept no books about that. About three hundred dollars, maybe,- between three and four hundred.

Q. How old are you, Mr. Hornbeck ?

A. I am in my seventy-sixth year.

Q. What is your business ?

A. House Carpenter.

Q. Are you able to work steadily, or not ?

A. No, sir. If I had been, I wouldn't have been asking this.

Q. Are you getting more feeble, and less able to work now, or not ?

A. Oh, I am less able to get about on buildings, of course. I can't go on buildings at all now.

Q. Now, considering your age and physical condition, and ability to get around and work, could you say that you will make as much as $300.00 this year ?

A. I want to; but of course it is guesswork. If I fail to do the work, of course I can't make it. I don't know how it will be.

Q. You say you made between three and four hundred dollars last year ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you be able to work as much this year, as you worked last year, or not ?

A. Oh, no. I am less able to work every year, and have been for some time.

(This concluded the testimony of S. A. Hornbeck.)

- - - - - - - -

W. H. Smith, called on behalf of Petitioner, being first duly sworn, and examined by Mr. T. C. Carroll, counsel for Petitioner, testified as follows:

Q. What is your age, Mr. Smith ?

A. I was seventy-three years old yesterday.

Q. Did you serve in the Confederate Army ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you at any time serve with Mr. S. A. Hornbeck ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. '65,- '64 and up to '65.

Q. He saw actual service ?

A. Yes, sir. We belonged to the same Company.

Q. You were in the same Company when you surrendered?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At Washington --

A. At Washington, Georgia.

Q. You have known Mr. Hornbeck since the Civil War, have you ?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. Where does he live, and has lived since that time ?

A. Well, he lived somewhere down in the Knobs,-- I was not at his home when he lived down there --

Q. I mean, has he lived in Bullitt County ?

A. Yes, sir/

Q. Continuously since that time ?

A. As far as I know.

Q. You know of his living in Bullitt County continuously for the past ten or fifteen years, do you not ?

A. Yes, sir.

(This concluded the testimony of W. H. Smith.)

- - - - - - - - - - - - -

A. M. Burt, called on behalf of petitioner, being first duly sworn, and examined by Mr. T. C. Carroll, counsel for petitioner, testified as follows:

Q. What is your name ?

A. A. M. Burt.

Q. Mr. Burt, do you know, S. A. Hornbeck ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you a soldier in the Civil War ?

A. I was.

Q. In the Confederate Army ?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you see service with Mr. S. A. Hornbeck ?

A. I did.

Q. During what time ?

A. Well, I can't recollect. It was in the '60's --- '65, I think ---- '62 to '65, it was --

Q. What time were you with him, with S. A. Hornbeck ?

A. Along -- I don't know exactly what time he comw to the Company. I was with him until I was taken prisoner in North Carolina March 20th, 1865.

Q. He was in your Company at that time ?

A. Yes, sir.

(This concluded the testimony of A. M. Burt.)

- - - - - - -

J. R. Zimmerman, called on behalf of petitioner, being first duly sworn, and examined by Mr. T. C. Carroll, counsel for petitioner, testified as follows:

Q. Mr. Zimmerman, what is your professinn ?

A. Lawyer.

Q. How long have you lived in Shepherdsville, Bullitt County ?

A. Since September, 1891.

Q. Do you know Mr. S. A. Hornbeck ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. For how long have you known him ?

A. Since about 1894.

Q. Has he since that time lived continuously in Bullitt County, Kentucky ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is his profession or business ?

A. He is a carpenter,- house-carpenter.

Q. Mr. Zimmerman, do you or not see Mr. S. A. Hornbeck daily, practically daily ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is his physical condition ?

A. Well, his condition, considering his age, is fairly good. He is seventy-five years old now; and a man of that age is not in very good physical condition. He is in good condition physically for a man of his age; but compared with younger men, he is not in good physical condition.

Q. Is his condition such that he will grow feebler ?

A. Yes, sir, I think so; naturally.

Q. Has he been feebler in the past year than he was the year previous to that ?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And will continue to grow feebler ?

A. I think so, gradually.

Q. Do you or not think, on account of his condition and age, that he will be less able to earn a living and will earn less money during the next year than he has during the preceding year or years previous to that ?

A. There is no question about that. His earning capacity is bound to be less each year.

(This concluded the testimony of J. R. Zimmerman.)

Regular Term of Bullitt County Court held on May 12th, 1919, at Shepherdsville, Bullitt County, Ky.

Hon. C. P. Bradbury, Judge of Bullitt County Court, Present.

The pension claim of S. T. Hornbeck having been heretofore filed at the regular April term of this court and having laid over for one month; this day came the said S. T. Hornbeck in person and the county attorney being present the Court having heard the evidence and being sufficiently advised from the evidence and affidavits filed with said claim recommends the allowance of the Confederate pension to S. T. Hornbeck and orders the original application with copy of evidence forwarded to the office of Commissioner of Pensions at Frankfort, Ky. and the duplicate filed in the office of the Clerk of Bullitt County Court.

T. C. Carroll,

Shepherdsville, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to yours of the 9th inst. concerning the application for pension of Samuel A. Hornbeck.

The proof in his case as to his military record is all right, but he states himself that he made $350.00 last year doing carpenter work, and the law states that if a man makes as much as $300 a year he cannot be placed upon the roll.

Yours truly,

Commissioner.

T. C. CARROLL
COUNTY ATTORNEY OF BULLITT COUNTY
SHEPHERDSVILLE, KENTUCKY

March 19, 1920.

Hon. William J. Stone,
Commissioner of Confederate Pensions,
Frankfort, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Several months ago the application of Mr. Samuel A. Hornback, of this County, for a Confederate pension was refused, for the reason that the application stated that during the previous year, Mr. Hornback made as much as $300.00.

Mr. Hornback is a man of seventy-seven years of age now, and while it is true that for the year in which he filed his application, he had made the amount stated in the application. Since then, he has been practically unable to perform any labor. He owns no property, except the house in which he lives, and has no source of income, except such as he is able to make through his own effort, and now he is on account of his old age able to do but very little work. He has all his life been a carpenter, and you can easily understand how at his present age he is unable to perform those duties. I have known Mr. Hornback all my life, and he is one of the most respected citizens of this County, and I believe his claim is a just one.

I will appreciate very much if you will afford me such blanks as are necessary to renew his application, and give me any information that may assist me in preparing the application, so he may receive the pension, and if necessary I can get any number of affidavits to sustain his application.

Thanking you for your attention to this, I am

Respectfully,

T. C. Carroll

County Attorney Bullitt County.

March 20th, 1920.

T. C. Carroll,

County Attorney,

Shepherdsville, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to yours of the 19th instant concerning the application for pension of Samuel A. Hornback.

A statement from yourself and the County Judge stating what income Mr. Hornback is receiving will be necessary before a pension can be granted him, and the pension will begin from the date of the papers being filed here.

Yours truly,

Commissioner.

LCC

The affiants, C. P. Bradbury and T. C. Carroll, state that the former is county judge and latter county attorney of Bullitt County, Kentucky, and each a resident of Shepherdsville, Kentucky.

Each of them states that he has known personally for many years Samuel A. Hornbeck, who was a confederate doldier and who made application for confederate pension under laws of State of Kentucky.

Each of them states that said Samuel A. Hornbeck is past 76 years old and is now feeble; that he has followed the trade of carpenter and on account of his old age and physical condition is unable to do very little work and that his condition should get worse on account of his age.

Each of them states that said Hornbeck is unable to make a living for himself and he has no income except that he owns a one-third interest in the house in which he lives with his daughters and son-in-law.

Each of them states that from his knowledge of the condition of said Hornbeck and his inability to do much work that each believes that he has not made as much as $ 100.00 during past six months.

Each of them states that his claim for a pension is a just claim and that he believes the application should be allowed, and neither of affiants is related to said Hornbeck.
