Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of yours of the 16th. Your application has not been reached by the Pension Board for consideration, but I have examined the proof filed with it, and I find that two witnesses testify to your service till the summer of 1863. The war records at Washington show that you enlisted July 16, 1861, in Company C, 2nd Kentucky Mounted Infantry, and that your company roll shows that you "Deserted" in October 1863. The prisoners-of-war records show that you were captured in Louisville, Ky. October 7, 1863, as a "Rebel Deserter". There is no proof of further service.

Ofcourse with the proof on file it would be impossible for the Pension Board to grant you a pension under the law.

Very truly,

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your favor of the 19th inst. and am astounded to learn that the charge of desertion stands against me in the war records you mention. I shall certainly procure every bit of evidence possible to disprove such an untrue and unjust record.

I trust you will search the Federal records to see if it is not true that about a thousand Confederates were cut off by the enemy and captured at Jackson Miss., soon after the fall of Vicksburg and all sent direct to Indianapolis as prisoners of war. I was one of these, and I think Capt. Jack Chinn was also among the number. If the Federal officers turned in the names of these prisoners I am sure mine will be found in the list.

I was making every effort possible to get back to my command, when captured, and never dreamed of being charged with desertion until I read it in your letter.

Trusting you will do all in your power to trace up my true record as outlined in my affidavit, enclosed, I remain,

Very truly, yours,

George Fogle

State of Kentucky)
County of Nelson } sct.

On this day personally appeared before me, a Notary Public within and for the county aforesaid, George Fogle who, being duly sworn according to law, says that about July 16, 1861, he enlisted in Company C. 2nd Kentucky ~~Infantry~~ Infantry C.S.A. and was in continuous service in the Confederate Army until about July or August 1863 when he was captured by Federal troops at Jackson Miss., and was sent as a prisoner of war to Indianapolis Ind.; that at the time of capture he was under Capt. Phil. Lee in Gen. Joseph Johnston's command; that he made his escape from prison at Indianapolis about Oct. 1, 1863 and went to Louisville Ky.; that he was re-captured at this point by Federal soldiers about Oct. 7, 1863 and on refusal to take the oath of allegiance to the U.S. Govt. he was sentenced to prison in Camp Chase; that he made his escape at Seymour Ind., enroute and made his way to Bardstown Ky. where he joined a party of Southern soldiers and accompanied them to Tennessee at a point on the Cumberland River, where they joined a Col. Hamilton and served under him until he was killed in battle sometime in the latter part of 1863 or the first of 1864; that he (Fogle) then joined Capt. Jake Bennett, an officer who had previously been captured with Gen. John Morgan, with whom he was in prison in Ohio, said Bennett acting independently at the time he (Fogle) joined him; that he remained with Capt. Bennett two or three months when he (Fogle) went to Union County Ky. (being unable to get through the Federal lines to return South) and in Union County he joined a man by name of Wallace and was assisting him in raising a new company or regiment when Wallace was killed a few months before the close of the war; that he (Fogle) was still in Union County Ky. when Gen. Lee surrendered, and on this event he (Fogle) surrendered to a Federal officer at Uniontown Ky., was put on board a boat and taken to Louisville Ky. where he was paroled by the U.S. authorities; that his reason for not returning South and joining his regular command after his escape from prison in Indianapolis was because of the fact that at no time was he able to get through the Federal lines; that this affidavit is made to refute the charge of desertion on his part, which Capt. Stone, pension examiner, in a letter of date of Aug. 19, 1913 informs him, is shown in his (Fogle's) Company roll, and in the prisoners-of-war records, and that there was no proof of further service; that this letter contains the first intimation to him that such a charge stood against him; that he prays the pension examiner to search the records thoroughly along the lines of this affidavit, as he believes they will bear him out in the foregoing statement as to his whereabouts after his escape from prison, and his inability to get through the Federal lines again to join his command in the South; and further affiant says not.

Dear Sir:-

I left New Haven
the other day and am out at Plainfield Ind.

visiting my children and while I was at New Haven Curt Brown, wrote to Frankfurt for me, in regard to my pension so I got a statement that I was a deserter, so I deny the charge.

If I had been a deserter I never would apply and if I had not been 2 for the last 2 yrs, disabled with rheumatism, I wouldnt applied but I am 74 yrs old, and I Thought if I could get a pension, it would certainly be a great help to me. So I stood for you during your Campaign for Congress. and when I explain things to you I dont think the board can turn me down, I never failed to do my duty when I was a Soldier when I was called in I was in the Battle at Fort Donalson, Hartsville Stone River, & Jackson Miss. and there I was captured The night of the retreat

3
I, Henry Housler, George Phillips and Clay Hlen, that night went up to a cotton factory to see if we could get something to eat, where there was people living all around it, and we got talking to some girls having a good time, and we stayed longer than we ought to when we went down to The river, we saw The Yankeys had possession, so we went up & down the river that night to see if we could get across & we couldnt, when day light broke the Yankeys was all around us, it looked like they had over a thousand other prisoners there Then they taken us to Camp Morton to prison and I was there, a month or two, and they wanted me to take the oath and I wouldn't do it so I made my escape got to Louisville. I was captured I was in prison there 2 or 3 days & there they wanted me to take the oath, and I wouldn't do it so they were going to start a camp chase with some prisoners, and they ordered me to get ready and to take me with them so when I got as far as Seymour I got away from them back to Louisville, & from there to Bardstown, and there I got in with some soldiers and went out to Tennessee & I joined in with Col. Hamilton and we got into a fight and he got killed.

And his men scattered so I joined in with Jake Bennett and he said he was Cap. under Gen Morgan but he was ~~an~~ escaped prisoner, then I went from there to Southern Ky, & Gen. Lyons came through and Lieut. Abbott was in the Advance. I went with him, when we got as far as Nelson Co. & when Gen.
Lyons got to Lame Co, he turned back and went to Tenn. & we got lost from him, so I got back to Southern Ky, & Col Wallace was there getting up recruits, and I was with him assisting him getting up recruits and after Gen. Lee surrendered there was a company of us surrendered to a Yankee officer

And there we got on a Steam boat at Uniontown, & we come up the river to Louisville & There we was parolled.
Now I want you to read this letter & consider it, and if you think I am entitled to any thing, I want you to answer me at Plainfield Ind, Yes or No
Yours respectfully

George Fogle
Plainfield Ind.

P.S.

I will be in Plainfield a month or two

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of two affidavits made by you relative to the case of George Fogle, in both of which you testify to his service till his capture in 1863, and in one of them you state that what you state about it is hearsay evidence, but that you are satisfied it is correct, and in the other you say that you knew and was with said Fogle at the close of the war.

Now you well understand that there is nobody on earth that knows you that would doubt anything you say, even without being sworn to, but these two affidavits would be confusing to the Pension Board, and I wish you would make another affidavit that would explain these two statements, and I am sending you the affidavits so that you will understand just what I mean.

Dear Friend,

My affidants are correct except I intended to ~~write~~ ^{say} that I knew Fogle just at close of the war, when we both returned to New Haven by our old home, He had not been with brigade after ~~the~~ capture at Jackson Miss in 1863, Balance of his record you will find his record after that in Ed Porter Thompson (last edition) History of the Orphan brigade. Which shows he was in prison till 1864 & escaped and served in Cavalry. This was what I heard & knew of from parties I saw at close of war that were with him, I understood they are dead and he cant get proof from soldiers who know of his service just before close of the war. I dont believe technicalities ought to keep an old General out of the

My Dear old friend

I thought I would drop you a few lines to get some information from you.

When I was at home in New Haven Ky I went out in the country after the Election, and I was taken down with Rheumatism and it was 4 months before I could put on my clothes, and it was 6 months before I was able to get out in the yard, and so my daughter was over there and she brought me home with her, here at Plainfield.

So I want to know about my pension papers whether you can charge them to send to Plainfield or not, I don't know whether I will be able to get back home to New Haven to have them fixed up or not

I am in a pretty bad fix yet, I am not able to walk without my crutches and I can't be on them very long at a time.

That little pension is the only income I have got, and if I am not able to get back home, I want to know whether I have to give it up or not³

I remain as ever

My Dear Friend

I thought I would drop you a few to let you see how I am getting along.
I was in Sky all last winter, and my daughter came in there to wait on me so she had to come home, and she brought me with her when I could not walk.

I am not much better yet. I can get around the house a little on crutches. and you told me you drop my name from the pay roll:

But I do not like this Country. I came Sky for my home. I vote there & pay my taxes there, and they would not let me vote here if I wanted to: so you can ask the Sheriff about me; and the County Judge are Been Johnson, our Congressman; they all know me and they know what I am:

so what little Pension I get it buys my clothes & my tobacco & medicine. My Dr said sickness ought to be a fearful expense over any where or at any time. I dont want to discomode you any: are for you to do any thing that wasent write.

I think the Regulator ought to make some Promoa. in a case like mine.

I am europes you will do the best by me that you can.

I. Remain as ever your true friend
George Foyle

I wish you a Happy
New Year
