July term of Caldwell County Court.

The application of Allen D. Mitchell coming on to be heard on a regular term of the Caldwell County Court, the County Attorney being present the following named witnesses, to-wit: ~~John~~ J.L. Storm Sr., whose address is Cobb, Ky. R.F.D. #1, and S.M. Sizemore, whose address is Cobb, Ky. R.F.D. #1, were introduced and sworn and testified in substance as follows:

That they have known the applicant for about forty years and that he has been an actual bona-fide resident of Caldwell County Kentucky since the Civil War; that he is a citizen of good reputation and worthy of full credit; that he owns a farm worth about $1000.00 and that he has no income except from his farm; that he is not able to earn a support by manual labor or otherwise.

I, as County Judge of Caldwell County Kentucky, would recommend that the applicant be granted a pension. He is not able to earn a support by manual labor or otherwise and is a citizen of good reputation and entitled to full faith and credit on his oath.

County Judge of Caldwell County Kentucky.
