My Dear Colonel & Friend:---

Enclosed find affidavit of Judge Morgan in regard to my Fathers' application for Pension. My Father served under Colonel Breckenridge, and I am certain that he made the statement that has been sworn to by Judge Morgan.

If Colonel Breckenridge were living to-day there would be no doubt that he could get his papers through without any difficulty whatever. I wish you would present the enclosed affidavit to Colonel Stone and explain to him that the affidavit was made by the County Judge of Anderson County, Judge Morgan whom you personally know, and that he is a man that is reliable and who would not make a statement that was not true. I can if necessary mail to Colonel Stone hundreds of affidavits in regard to my Father, but I believe that this will be all that he will ask of me.

We have advertised in several papers in the Southern States for Soldiers who served in the same Regiment that my Father served but so far have received no reply. Let me know if this is O.K. and if not what other evidence he desires.

It being such a long time since the Civil War you know that there are only a few left and it is almost impossible to secure a complete record in many of the cases.

If you can get this through for me it will be a favor that that I will never forget as long as I live, for as you know my Father is getting near that age when he will soon answer the last roll call, and then it will be too late.

Again thanking you for the many, many, favors that you have always gladly shown me. And hoping that in some future day that I can ~~#####~~ render some assistance to you, and if at any time that you I can serve you in any way, command me.

Personally came before me, the undersigned authority, James Cokley, and made oath in due form of law to the following state of facts:-

That he was in Col. John H. Morgan's Command, during the Civil War, and that in the summer and fall of 1863, he was stationed at Sparta, Tennessee; that one J. Dick Johnson was Commander of the Post, and affiant was Courier. Johnson was in Sparta from July until September 18th, 1863; said J. Dick Johnson was captured near Rock Island, Tennessee, by the Yankee Soldiers, and taken to McMinnville, and from there transported to Louisville, Ky. Affiant knows the fact that said Johnson was in the Confederate Army and commanded the Post at Sparta, as hereinbefore stated, and was there during the time referred to.

Affiant knows nothing of his history after he was removed to Louisville.

My Dear Friend;--

I was ever at Georgetown last week visting my Brother

gard to my release by Colonel Mark Munday.

I also was ordered to report once a month to the nearest Prove Marshall until exchanged (which I did) when I returned home in August 1863. I was sent to Louisville to prison and there released by Col. Munday.

If it is necessary to have this statement made in form of an

Dear General:-

Relative to application of J. R. Johnson, father of W. S. Johnson, I only wish to say that the affidavit recently filed in the matter will be sufficient, I hope, to obtain for him the pension.

The applicant, I know, is almost in dire need, and it would be a meritorious act on the part of the pension department to grant the pension.

From what I know and have heard, there can be no question as to Mr. Johnson being entitled to it.

I will consider it a favor if you will interest yourself in his behalf, which I will be glad to reciprocate at any time.

Thanking you in advance for the favor, and with kindest regards, I am,

My Dear Friend :---

Enclosed you will find an affidavit from my Fathers' Brother which I will ask you to file with Col. Stone.

You will see by reading it that my Uncle testifies that my Father was at home when he returned home from the Federal Army in 1864, suffering from a case of Tonsolitis which he contracted in prison at Louisville, Ky. and said case rendered him unfit for further Military duty and by reason of same he was sent home from prison.

Col. Stone said he needed proof to show that he was at home from prison, and also what caused him to be sent home.

I wish you would see him and let me know now what he has to say about the matter. It seems to be that I have now produced enough of proof to entitle him to this pension, and I am in hope that it will now be granted without any further delay.

For what you have done in the past I will never be able to repay you, and whether we are successfull or not in securing same, I know that it will not be any fault of yours, as you have certainly done all that has been asked, and have done it willingly, and cheerfully. My Father will never forget your interest in the matter, and he asks me to thank you in his behalf for your trouble and he wishes that you could make a race for some State Office so that he could vote for you, and could go out and get the remaining Comrades in this County to line up for you. It will ever be my ambition to some day to walk to the polls and cast a vote for you.

It seems to me that of the Candidates that have so far have announced that you could go out in the State and beat any of them out. For Anderson County I can say that you would carry it by a Majority consisting of four figures and probaly more.

Again thanking you, and hoping now that this matter can, and will be adjusted.

Let me hear from you as soon as you hear what Col. Stone has to say in regard to this Affidavit.

The affiants, Miss Julia McChesney and Mrs Kate Baker, say that they are now residents of Georgetown, Scott County, Kentucky, and that they are respectively 75 years of age and 79 years of age. They say that during the period of the Civil War they were living in Lexington, Kentucky, and that at that time and since that time they have been personally acquainted with J. R. Johnson in fact have known him all their lives. They say that they know that a parole was granted to the said J. R. Johnson by Col. Mark A. Mundy, Commander of the Post at Louisville, Kentucky, and the reason that they know that such parole was granted is that sometime in October 1864, the said J. R. Johnson was a visitor in their home at Lexington, Kentucky, and that while he was there he showed to them and each of them this parole and each of them read same.

The parole was dated Sept, 19th, 1863, and by it the said Johnson agreed not to take up arms against the United States Government and to report to the nearest Provost Marshall's Office until duly exchanged.

He states that he is a brother of J.R. Johnson, now a resident of Lawrenceburg, Ky, who was a member of the 9th, Ky. Cal. of the Confederate Army, and who has made application for a Pension under the Confederate Pension Law. Affiant states that he was in the Federal Army stationed at Chattanooga, Tenn, in 1863 whrn my brother J.R. Johnson returned from the Federal Prison at Louisville, Ky. I was so informed by my Family of his (J.R. Johnsons') illness which was a severe case of Tonsolitis. He returned home some time in the Fall of 1863 from Prison at Louisville, Ky so I was informed by my Family, and when I was discharged in 1864 and returned home, I found my Brother (J.R. Johnson) still suffering from said disease, and from what I could learn said J.R. Johnson was released from the Federal Prison at Louisville, Ky, because said disease rendered him unfit for futher Military Service.
