My dear Madam:

Your letter of August 16th received.

I was glad to be able to allow your mother's pension,
I am sorry to tell you that no back pay can be allowed, either by the Commissioner or the Board, as the law plainly states an application may be allowed from the day it is properly filed in this office, this means the date on which sufficient proof is filed to render the applicant eligible, and in your mother's case, it was allowed on the date the proof was received. I am sorry for her condition of health, and hope she will

WIDOW OF DANIEL F. GREEN.

Dear Sir:

The above widow, who has been receiving pension since August 1929 on Certificate #4580 dated Sept. 25, 1929, is under the impression that there is an accrual of back pay due her for a term prior to August 1st 1929.

As she has requested that I bring the matter to your attention will you kindly advise me if there is merit to her claim, and if so, what should be the method of her procedure?

Very truly yours,

November, 10, 1930-

Mr. J. C. Phillips,

My dear Sir:

Your letter of November 8th relative to the pension of Sallie Ann Green has been received. There is no back pension due Mrs, Green , as she is paid from the date her application was received in this office, with proof to render her eligible, no back pay has ever been allowed in any case, and I think this information was given Mrs. Green once before,

Very Truly,

Comm.
