Re: COBB, Pleasant, deceased
Co. A., 8th Ky. Infantry

Dear Sir:

The above named deceased Civil War veteran died November 2, 1926, and I immediately wrote to your office of his death and was advised that there was $36.80 accrued pension due at that and was sent a widow's application blank to sign and return so I might receive this amount.

I never did receive this money and was told that because I was not married to Mr. Cobb prior to 1890 I wasnot entitled to this accrued pension. I have these papers and after reading several times about the change in laws affecting the widows of different wars, I am writing to ask you if I am now entitled to this $36.80 and also to a widow's pension? I will be 76 years the 31st of Jan.

I will appreciate your early reply and any assistance you can give me.

Yours truly,
Millie Cobb

Dear Miss Fogg:

Your letter dated February 24th received this date.

You ask for certified copy of the marriage record of this deceased veteran and Millie Hazelip Cobb, and referring to our letter to you dated February 3rd, we find that our letter states that we enclosed a certified copy of this marriage record on that date. This was at the same time we sent you the Voucher showing the $36.80 - that was the old voucher and same was returned with a new one for execution and the last voucher was sent you on February 15th.

If you need some other verification of the marriage record kindly advise us as we seem to be at a loss to know what other type to send. These Civil War claims are so few and far between that we forget.

We are anxious to help Mrs. Cobb in any way necessary.

Sincerely,

Hallie H. Lindsay.
